Top Positive Review cary S. 11/11/20 I am a long-time Woot buyer. I recently bought a Russell Hobs coffee maker. The price was awesome (and it is not updated), somehow it will be delivered in 2 days! I just like it, it's frigin beautiful. Yes, nice coffee maker. Using a timer, it made me coffee I drink now and I couldn't be happier! What a great experience, really exceptional. Happy birthday to me! See positive reviews for Top Critical Review Mark C. 7/21/20 On COVID (our office is closed), we were unable to use or test the updated computer we purchased from Woot. When we got back to the office, we tried to let him go and literally nothing happened. I did not ask for a refund, just a similar change. Most companies are understanding during this pandemic. I think Woot doesn't care. I'll be sure to share my own mine about Woot when I get the chance. See critical reviews of GIST critical reviewsAll critical reviews- S. CONTACT: Kimberly Weston, SOURCE Woot! Fearful, bunch of squandars, liars, bunch of thieves... Stay away from this site... you do not get tempted by 40% discount or 60% discount... they will sell t broken and broken the item and then after you will call the manufacturers ... That question would be simple and short. Buy material from Amazon with your eye closed, but stay away from woot... I know it's kind of stupid Amazon owns woot right... Barbara of Sumter, SC Verified Reviewer Original Review: December 7, 2020I ordered several T-shirts that were small. I reached out to Woot and they responded very quickly. I order everything online and come across many different companies. I rate Woot's customer service as one of the best. Douglas from Larkspur, CO Verified Reviewer Verified Buyer Original Review: December 1, 2020This April this year Comcast started working in my neighborhood to provide high-speed internet services. Woot advertised a large piece of equipment - Netgear AC1900 Cable Modem / Router and said it would work on the Comcast network, so I bought it. For some reason, Comcast stopped its work and last week in November, I finally had install your modem / router. Comcast would not allow its use on your network because the MAC address was already active in another account. Since I had the equipment, I realized that there is no way it can be true, so I went to the Comcast store, which is near my home. The manager actually looked up account information and invited the client and mac address that is written on my equipment is the same as the customer had. My box is fake! The same thing happened to a neighbor who did the same thing I did. I suspect that Woot sold a bunch of fake pieces. Woot was sympathetic but said they had a 30-day repayment period and since I was well behind it, there was nothing that they could do. In this case, if I could have installed the box as soon as I got it, she wouldn't have worked. I asked if instead of giving me a refund, they could give me credit for the future purchase, but they refused. I am very disappointed with the lack of customer service and want to warn others about how to upgrade products that connect to the computer network. Since Woot is an Amazon-owned company, they could really learn about customer service from their parent company! Read the full review of Michael of Philadelphia, PA Verified Reviewer Original Review: March 6, 2020 This is now the third or fourth time I have contacted customer service regarding the return of a product that has been sent damaged, faulty or wrong. Enough. I propose to manage a clear part of this company. Elizabeth of Hesperia, CA Verified Reviewer Original review: Feb. 22, 2020I purchased this item for my camping equipment. It pops up instantly, getting it back was a nightmare. The included instructions on how to fold it are funny, poorly described. It is impossible to return to the carrying tray for more than 1/2 hour. Had to go to Youtube, 2 different videos to find the right one. Almost threw it in the trash until he finally found the video, which folded it in two movements. Why can't the instructions with the item do it? And there was nowhere on woot site nor in the FAQ section that allowed me to view this product that I'm doing it here. Stacey of Rocklin, CA Verified Reviewer Original Review: Jan. 9, 2020I buy online Cuisinart Amana is cast iron Dutch oven. 2 minutes and I mean literally 2 minutes after I ordered it I saw that it came in color that I liked better. I tried to call but couldn't get through all they were shut down. Their policy I read somewhere stated that you can cancel any order within 2 hours. Since I was only 2 minutes away I should have been able to cancel. And I really didn't want to cancel I just wanted to change colors. So I wrote a letter I know that I didn't get a response in 2 hours. I still hoped that they would be correct and they could see that my email address was sent just three minutes after buying the whole. They emailed me back and said, Oh sorry this after 2 two hours. You can not change anything about this product. And they just didn't work with me at all under any circumstances. This is my first experience with Woot and this will be my last! And I spread the word about Woot's false return Read the full review of Lynn dallas, TX Verified Reviewer Original Review: December 27, 27, the item was due to be delivered on Monday, it's now Friday and still not a point. Customer service told me that it would be delivered to my business during normal business hours. But for 2 consecutive days, the USPS (which is terrible) tried to deliver after 7 p.m. You can't get a live CS agent Woot by phone or get a live CS USPS phone call. So buyer beware! Delivery is your own risk and success if you have problems. You are 100% on your own. This will be my last Woot Order.ROYCE from Grenada, MS Verified Reviewer Original Review: December 18, 2019I've been charged 1000 dollars woot and have no idea who they are. I emailed several times to try and find out what was going on. I did not have an answer and they do not have a phone number on the list. All this seems to me to be fishy and I'm confused as to why Amazon would relate to clown shows like this Spring Lake, MI Verified Reviewer Original Review: December 10, 2019I commissioned by Sony HDTV from Woot Amazon. After waiting 10 days, they told me to wait another 3. Waited 3. Contact WOOT again only to tell them that they would refund my money for 8-10 business days. I said, Why not send another one with a 2-day delivery? No answer. Then I repeatedly had to claim my refund, which I still did not receive! I'll never buy from them again. Interestingly, I contacted AMAZON, which said it was the 3rd country and that AMAZON does not control their policies. I later found out AMAZON owns WOOT, which now makes sense why it wouldn't follow my review. Check out WOOT reviews on AMAZON. You'll only see positive feedback or won't. I'm very upset with both of them. Lesson learned. Lisa of Garland, TX Verified Reviewer Original Review: December 10, 2019I buy a cast iron skillet set through Amazon for 12 days deals (Christmas) at a great price. The product never existed. No one could explain why he didn't come. First I contacted AMAZON after waiting for their required time replacement order, having been told that my money could be refunded rather than replaced and contacted the company. I contacted WOOT. They wouldn't forward a product that states that I refused to accept it, it's up, all the time I get tracking messages stating that the delivery is delayed, then specifying to allow another two days, then indicating the delivery is lost. What a joke! I asked you to change the order so that it resents and WOOT would not honor the price I paid for the conversion and their price doubled. Very poor customer service. Refund g refund (I hope) and purchase of the product from another company. I heard LODGE makes a much better product of cast iron skillets anyway! Jaime of Long Beach, CA Verified Reviewer Verified Buyer Original review: Dec. 1, 2019Woot almost feels like a scam. I can't believe it's an Amazon company. Amazon's customer experience was like HEAVEN versus HELL that Woot is. Let me tell you what happened in detail. I your first order woot 10/30/2019. I was abroad on a trip and I forgot what I ordered, but I realized because Woot is a part of Amazon, I thought that the operation would be just as simplified and matched with the excellent experience that Amazon shopping usually gives 99% of the time. They got the other 3 items in the same order right, including a 3-piece order sports shorts, a Bluetooth receiver for the car, and a pair of nike running shoes, but these are the remaining elements of concern: Mens Slim-Fit Fleece Moto Joggers ∓ Zip-Up Hoodie For Sale woot. Gender: Male. Color: Black. Condition: New. Size: Large. Quantity: 1 @ $26.99 - 70% discount on the list price $89.95. (Problem: I only got a Zip-Up Hoodie, not Moto Joggers. They're completely missing.) Men's Slim-Fit Tech Fleece Hoodie ∓ Jogger Sold woot. Gender: Male. Color: Black set. Condition: New. Size: Large. Quantity: 1 @ $29.99 - 80% discount on list price $149.99. (Problem: Instead of a black set, I got into the set of Heather Grey, invalid color.) Anker Powerline Plus Lightning Cable For Sale woot. Color: Golden. Condition: New. Size: 6'. Volume: 2 @ $11.33 - 37% discount on the list price $17.99. (Problem: Instead of getting 2 cable (I ordered 2), someone packed a very useless USB 2.0 TYPE-B MINI cable instead. So what do I learn from this one order? There is a serious problem in the Order/Packing section. I don't get what I paid for, and I wonder if others are experiencing the same thing. It's totally awkward to get out of our way to drop something that we didn't get in the first place. They can pay for return shipping, but it still costs precious time and gas to go to the return place. Let's be honest. Based on the amount of errors in this order... I started thinking Woot is either sketchy, very unreliable, and completely inconsistent OR it was poorly managed by incompetent employees, possibly from top to bottom. THIS IS UNACCEPTABLE. I'm honestly wondering what Amazon has to say about this consistently sketchy business that they decided to do for one of their companies. It's not deserved to have any connections to Amazon, but unfortunately it is. Do yourself a favor and DO NOT MAKE ANY PURCHASES from Woot. You will either get the wrong thing, or not everything you have paid. Imagine ordering a restaurant and getting just over half of your food and even what you have is not quite right. That's what Woot is. Read the full review of Next Next
